

1 preservation of assets. (ECF No. 355). On May 2, 2016, in 2 response to the plaintiffs' request that the court modify the 3 injunction to limit or eliminate the attorney's fee carve-out, the 4 court directed the Suzukis to provide the court with a reasonable 5 monthly limit for attorney's fees. (See ECF No. 424 (Minutes of 6 the Court Dated May 2, 2106)). The schedule filed by the Suzukis
7 on May 17, 2016, suggests a monthly limit of $90,000.00 for 8 attorney's fees, $40,000.00 of which would be for this litigation
9 alone (ECF No. 439). The schedule further proposes a monthly limit 10 of $10,000.00 for preservation of assets, and indicates that at the 11 time of filing the Suzukis had $66,838.99 in outstanding invoices
12 for preservation of assets. Id. Nothing filed by the Suzukis
13 provides any sort of detail as to these expenditures.

14       The amounts sought in the schedule filed on May 17, 2016, are 15 unreasonable and are not authorized by the provision of the 16 injunction allowing payment of reasonable fees relating to this 17 litigation only. Accordingly, pursuant to the provision of the 18 injunction that allows payment of normal living expenses and legal 19 fees, the Suzukis may pay up to $10,000.00 per month for attorney's 20 fees relating to this litigation only and up to $5,000.00 per month
21 for expenses related to the preservation of assets. The Suzukis 22 shall file monthly accountings with the court detailing any such 23 expenditures. The Suzukis and their agents and representatives, 24 and all persons and entities under the control of or acting in 25 concert with either of them are prohibited from using any of the 26 assets or expending any of the funds that are the subject of the 27 injunction in excess of the amounts set forth above without prior 28 authorization of the court. All requests for excess expenditures

1 shall be submitted to the court for consideration, and the court, 2 after considering any objection by the plaintiffs, may increase the 3 amount authorized by this order for good cause shown. Any such 4 request shall contain an itemization of the funds expended 5 sufficient for the court to determine the reasonableness of the 6 expenditures.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.
